

Upcoming Continuing Education Seminars with Kiiko Matsumoto Live-Streaming from Kiiko's Clinic

Topic: Kiiko Matsumoto Treatment Strategies: Using the SCM as a Diagnostic Area

Course Description: Kiiko Matsumoto will share her insights into the importance of the SCM muscle. The SCM is a unique muscle in that it is only one of very few muscles in the body controlled by a cranial nerve. This allows us to use the SCM as a diagnostic tool for sympathetic dominance, structural integrity and other common ailments. The connection between the SCM and root presentation of patients will be made in real time and Kiiko Matsumoto will demonstrate best treatment options.

Kiiko Matsumoto will also present new investigations into Stomach 9, the carotid body and human evolution, and how the neck can be used to diagnose and treat oxygenation issues throughout the body, which manifest with a wide variety of asthmatic, hypertensive, intestinal and psychological symptoms
