

Kiiko Style Acupuncture Advanced Case Study Seminar with Kiiko Matsumoto

July 27-28, 2019

Baltimore/Washington International Airport Area (BWI)

13 NCCAOM CEUs (Pending)

Registration Open through Friday, July 19, 2019

Kiiko Style Acupuncture utilizes a systematic, easy to learn, instantaneous feedback, palpatory method which reveals a comprehensive diagnosis and a patient-unique treatment plan.

By looking deeply into structural and/or constitutional imbalances underlying a patient's symptomatic complaints, a Kiiko Style practitioner can successfully solve difficult cases and treat the most complex of possible medical issues.

This style is largely inspired by the work of Japanese acupuncturists Master Nagano, Master Kawai and Kiiko's vast clinical experience.

The Kiiko Style Acupuncture Advanced Weekend, July 2019 Seminar will build on intermediate material to Kiiko's work and will focus on the practical application of these concepts and principles. Additionally, the seminar is designed for practitioners who are currently using Kiiko style acupuncture and who wish to deepen their knowledge (1) through the study of case histories and (2) through the study of new material Kiiko has gleaned from the classics.

All that said, practitioners who wish to meet Kiiko and learn from case studies as an introduction to Kiiko Style Acupuncture are also invited to register for this seminar. However, since Kiiko will be teaching to a group of advanced students, you register with the expectation that you will not be able to fully practice Kiiko Style acupuncture on Monday morning after the seminar. This will simply be an opportunity to meet Kiiko and get a sense of what she does and perhaps decide if you want to study further with her.

Kiiko is regularly teaching acupuncturists around the world and the United States. Her vast clinical experience and powerful teaching style are her trademark.

Kiiko Style Acupuncture Advanced Seminar for Acupuncturists currently using Kiiko Style Acupuncture in their practice. July 27-28, 2019

Kiiko Matsumoto presents advanced interpretation of the classic texts with very practical implications, and case histories using Kiiko Style acupuncture. This Kiiko workshop will help the student who has been studying Kiiko Style acupuncture through seminars and the readying of her books, Kiiko Matsumoto's Clinical Strategies, vol. 1 & 2, to deepen his/her knowledge through her presentation of the wisdom found in esoteric classic texts.

Functional differential diagnosis, treatment planning and correct needling is at the heart of the Kiiko Style Acupuncture.

1. Kiiko Matsumoto will discuss individual cases and deliver an in-depth analysis of the energetics as they show up in each case.
2. Additionally, this seminar will focus on training the advanced Kiiko Style practitioner to think creatively and efficiently when applying the large body of differential diagnosis and treatment planning material which makes up Kiiko Style Acupuncture. Through tracking Kiiko's thought process (1) in evaluating cases, and (2) in building an effective treatment for each case, the student will learn to refine and improve his/her own evaluation and treatment planning skills.

3, The July, 2019 Seminar will focus on new material Kiiko has gleaned from the classics for restoring kidney function altered by medication and/or poor diet. and the rebalancing of the autonomic nervous system when abnormal blood pressure presents. All of this information will be presented in a handout and will be demonstrated in seven case studies present during the weekend seminar.
